Permission, Medical, and Liability Release

As a parent/guardian, I give my consent for the above minor to participate in the AWANA program as a Leader-in-Training and all its associated activities.

I agree as the parent/guardian to assist in holding my teen accountable to the required standards and to pick them up mid-program if necessary.

I further release Castleford First Baptist Church of liability in the event of an accident during the normal procedure of the program. I do herewith authorize treatment under the direction of a licensed physician or emergency medical worker of the above minor in the event of a medical emergency which, in the opinion of the attending medical professional, may endanger his or her life, cause disfiguration, physical impairment or undue discomfort if delayed. This authority is granted only after a reasonable effort has been made to reach me by phone at the numbers listed above.

Leaders-in-training (LITs) are expected to adhere to the following standards:

1. LITs are leaders not clubbers. You may be allowed to participate in certain activities alongside clubbers at the adult leaders' discretion. However, this is to provide role-model leadership and is always for the benefit of and enhancing the experience for the enrolled students, not for your own. LITs will participate with this in mind and understand they will not be allowed to participate in activities if the adult leaders deem it unhelpful, inappropriate, or need them elsewhere.
2. Leaders are responsible for the care, direction, and safety of clubbers. As such, full attention must be given to leading. This means attention should not be diverted to phone/devices, unrelated conversations, friends, or goofing around.
3. To always lead in modeling the highest standard of Respect (of God, other leaders, clubbers, and property); Kindness, and Self-Control in their actions and words. This includes leading in listening at appropriate times.
4. To maintain appropriate and positive physical and verbal boundaries, including with their siblings. Leaders should always be with the group and never alone with any individual. All physical touches should be positive and respectful, such as high-fives, handshakes, side hugs, and knuckle bumps. Prolonged or more intimate displays of affection are prohibited. Verbal contact must be kind, encouraging, appropriate in content, and set the standard for how clubbers should interact with one another.
5. To ask questions if they do not know, are uncertain, or are uncomfortable.
6. To always be ready and available to assist adult leaders however directed.
7. To report to a director (Thomas, Genaura, or Carol) any concerns or safety issues they observe.
8. To attend any training or meetings required by the directors.

Failure to comply with these expectations may result in your temporary or permanent suspension as a LIT, including dismissal during an AWANA session. Parents/Guardians may be responsible to immediately pick-up an LIT that is not adhering to these expectations.

Applicant Agreement

I certify that to the best of my knowledge all information in this application is true and complete. I understand the expectations outlined here and agree to follow them at all times. I understand I may be dismissed from the program for failure to do so and can be banned from the premises without a guardian present if deemed necessary.
